Research - Outgoing (February 2019)
Ryan Rowberry, associate professor of law, has received an Aarhus University Foundation research grant in the amount of $7,000 to complete research on legal protections for Danish coastal cultural heritage.

Incoming Visit from Aarhus University Professor of Law (April 2019)
Dr. Ellen Margrethe Basse, Professor of Law at Aarhus University (Denmark) was our fourth visiting professor for the International Perspectives on Urban Law and Policy course. She last visited in 2005, 2008, 2010, 2013, and most recently in 2015. Ellen is Professor in Environmental Law at Aarhus University. She was the Director of the interdisciplinary social science research center (CeSaM) 1992-2001, and the Chairman of AU's Climate Panel 2008-2010. She is a former member of the Danish Research Council and a member of the Board of the National Transport Research Institute, Chairperson of the Board of National Environmental Research Institute, member of the Research Advisory Board for the Minister for the Environment and Energy, member of the Parliamentary Board of Technology, the Common Committee on Environment of the Danish Research Councils, and the Danish Social Science Research Council. She was awarded the Order of Dannebrog by HM, The Queen of Denmark in 2004 and is a member of the Royal Danish Academy of Sciences and Letters. It was particularly good to have her here since we now have a student exchange program with Aarhus University and four Aarhus law students in the 2018/19 academic year.
